

Would you like to learn to sail a Sgoth Niseach (traditional North Lewis style fishing boat) and get out on the water this summer?

No experience necessary! Waterproofs & lifejackets provided

Funded by the Healthy Islands Fund

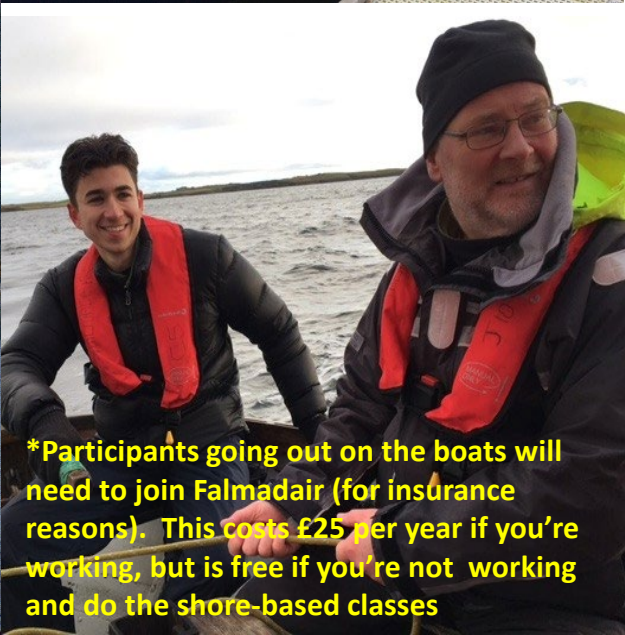

Local charity
Falmdair is running free* training sessions in Stornoway in on Saturday afternoons from 23rd April to 21st May

Training will be a mixture of shore- and boat-based

For insurance reasons, participants must be aged 11 or over & under 16's must be accompanied by an adult

Advance registration required, please email:
falmdair@gmail.com
by 16th April 2022

Apply early as places are limited!

*Participants going out on the boats will need to join Falmdair (for insurance reasons). This costs £25 per year if you're working, but is free if you're not working and do the shore-based classes